THE VILLAGE INNS
OF BLOWING ROCK

RIDGEWAY INN

Blowing Rock, North Carolina

THE VILLAGE INNS OF BLOWING ROCK

The Ridgeway Inn was the very first inn to open in the Village of Blowing Rock, and is an integral part of the Village's history. Today, it remains a popular destination, not just for its heritage, central location, and comfortable rooms, but also for the exquisite rose gardens that surround the Inn. Visitors to Blowing Rock often visit the Inn, just to behold the gardens.

Accommodations:

The exterior of the Inn features eye-catching golden cedar shakes, and is encompassed by gardens overflowing with flowers. Inside, you'll find stylish, spacious rooms with a décor that celebrates the gardens and views that surround the Inn.

You'll feel miles away, but you're just a few steps from the shops, restaurants and attractions of Blowing Rock.

Location:

Located at the intersection of Hwy. 221 and Main Street, just down the road from the entrance to the Blue Ridge Parkway, The Ridgeway Inn is located in the center of it all. The Inn is just behind the popular Bob Timberlake Gallery, and is a short walk to Main Street shopping and restaurants. The Inn is also close to The Blowing Rock, Tweetsie Railroad, Tanger Shoppes on the Parkway and other area attractions.

Suites & Cottages:

The cottages and suites of Ridgeway Inn offer additional amenities including full kitchens, fireplaces and jacuzzis. Plan a romantic getaway or a family vacation in ultimate comfort.

Amenities:

Each guest room features color televisions, sitting areas, refrigerators, microwave ovens, coffee makers and hair dryers. The Ridgeway Inn also offers private decks or sunrooms, a popular rose garden, rocking chair porch and more!

Guests are further pampered with daily complimentary continental breakfast and an afternoon wine and cheese reception.
